

Arrival & Parking at CFT

Communities Foundation of Texas is located just minutes from downtown Dallas at the southwest corner of Caruth Haven Lane and Central Expressway.

Parking can be found in spaces at the front of the building for access to the main entrance under the port cochere or by driving around to the rear of the building and entering through the courtyard entrance. NOTE: There is no public access to the building on the entire west side of the facility; should guests choose to park here, they will need to walk around to either the main entrance or courtyard doors.
